

Mystic Mountain Christmas Music

December 2 - 6, 2019

Day one: The beauty of the Great Smoky and Appalachian Mountains at Christmas awaits us as we meet our travel companions. Enjoy activities on board our deluxe motor coach before arriving at the Indianapolis White River Gardens. Brilliant displays of Holiday floral, including poinsettias and the 5,000 square foot Hilbert Conservatory, offers the visitor a variety of floral and fauna exhibits. After checking into our hotel to freshen up we enjoy the ever popular Derby Dinner Playhouse this evening. (D)

Day two: We continue traveling through Kentucky today, stopping at Berea for lunch at the historic Boone Tavern, which is owned by Berea College and operated by the students of this tuition-free college. Later we continue to Gatlinburg, Tennessee and our accommodations at the Hilton Garden Inn for the next two nights. This evening we enjoy the entertaining Hatfield & McCoy's "Dinner Disaster Show". (BLD)

Day three: This morning we take a drive through the breathtakingly beautiful Great Smoky Mountain National Park which has one of the most diverse collections of plants and wildlife in the United States. Later we enjoy a "Shine & Wine" experience of tasting while toasting the Holidays in the Mountains! We spend the afternoon at Dolly Parton's famous musical theme park - Dollywood, nestled in the foothills of the Smokies, with the best in Christmas country, bluegrass, mountain and gospel music! Craftsmen demonstrate blacksmithing, glass blowing and wood carving. This evening we enjoy an included festive dinner at the locally famous Applewood Farmhouse, then enjoy another wonderful music performance, "The Country Tonight Show Christmas Show."(BD)

Day four: We leave Pigeon Forge this morning heading towards Bardstown, Kentucky and visit "My Old Kentucky Home", inspired by Stephen Foster's original work. We tour the home to learn the background behind this famous anti-slavery ballad. This evening we enjoy a delightful dining and holiday entertainment at the Beef & Boards Dinner Theater. (BD)

Day five: Enjoy the scenery and holiday activities on board our motor coach as we travel home with memories of our Misty Mountain Christmas Music experience! (B)
